To whom it may concern,

It is my pleasure to support the Australian War Animal Memorial Organization (AWAMO).

At their core AWAMO fight for and believe in the preservation of animals, during times of war and conflict and their mission to send a shipping container load of animal food and medication to aid the Ukrainian crisis is commendable.

During these times of crises in Ukraine many animals are suffering from abandonment or dispossession and need help. Likewise, many Ukrainian refugees are fleeing the country- many have brought their pets with them to bordering countries such as Poland.

I acknowledge the work being undertaken by AWAMO to aid these refugee animals in-situ to the ensure distribution and administration of medicines.

I provide my overwhelming support and wish them all the best for this endeavour.

Kind regards,
